What's involved in a Capital Campaign?

Services offered by the Foundation

The Wisconsin United Methodist Foundation offers complete Capital Campaign services tailored to meet the needs of your congregation. Whether you are looking to raise funds for renovating or building a church, reducing debt, or funding new ministry, we can help!

By using a faith-centered approach—inviting members to respond to the gifts God has given—we help to challenge your members to a faithful response. There are two phases of

Pre-Campaign Evaluation Study Phase

During this first phase the Foundation will...

- ◆ Conduct 25-30 one hour interviews at your church
- ◆ Identify campaign leaders
- ◆ Identify potential major gifts and “pace-setting” donors
- ◆ Determine manageable goals for the Campaign
- ◆ Uncover attitudes of church leaders and potential donors
- ◆ Seek information concerning the level and likelihood of support
- ◆ Provide a Pre-Campaign Evaluation Study Report to your committee

Intensive Campaign Phase

- ◆ You are provided with a detailed, individualized Manual of Instruction which contains all procedures, job descriptions, sample letters and mailings for the campaign
- ◆ We give on-site assistance throughout the campaign
- ◆ We participate in and lead key events during the campaign such as preaching in worship, holding
